

Winners announced for Warc Prize for Mena Strategy 2022

Havas Middle East has won a Grand Prix for this year's Warc Prize for Mena Strategy for their Barakat Read The Label campaign.

Havas Middle East has won a grand prix for their Read The Label campaign.

The jury panel of 10 leading client- and agency-side industry experts was chaired by Lianne Braganza, Cigna's chief marketing officer for Middle East and Africa. They chose the Barakat campaign because it underscored the importance of reading and understanding product labels to combat unhealthy lifestyles and poor eating habits.

Barakat redesigned its bottles, invited shoppers to #ReadTheLabel, created e-commerce digital banners and a cinematic brand film, leveraged influencers, and hosted a live session on Instagram with a certified nutritionist. The campaign reached four million people, with a 105% increase in social interactions and a 14% sales increase; 80% of people exposed to the campaign say they plan to read labels in the future.
