10 students receive ICT bursaries

BizTech Africa reports that, as part of Telecom Namibia's social investment in creating a strong and productive skills base to enable the economy to grow, the company has awarded 10 students with ICT bursaries.

For more:

- BizTech Africa: Telecom Namibia awards 10 ICT bursaries...

The Telecom Namibia bursary recipients for the academic year 2014 are:

- Leonard Pertrus, from the //Karas region, for a Bachelor in Accounting Science at the Polytechnic of Namibia.
- Johannes Rauna, from the //Karas region, for a Bachelor in Accounting Science at the Polytechnic of Namibia.
- Carlos Sibalatani, from the Zambezi region, for a Bachelor Electronic Engineering at the Polytechnic of Namibia.
- Jesaya Mushisheni, from the Ohangwena region, for a Bachelor Electronic Engineering at the University of Namibia.
- Apronia Shimmi, from the Oshana region, for a Bachelor Electronic Engineering at the University of Namibia.
- Domigos David, from the Kavango region, for a Bachelor Electronic Engineering at the Polytechnic of Namibia.
- Aili Matheus, from the Komas Region, for a Bachelor Electronic Engineering at the Polytechnic of Namibia.
- Riahama Musutua, from the Kunene Region, for a Bachelor of Information Technology at the Polytechnic of Namibia.
- Levy Hamukoto, from the Otjozondjupa Region, for a Bachelor of Information Technology at the Polythecnic of Namibia.
- Denzil Tsauseb, from the Erongo Region, for a Bachelor of Information Technology at the Polytechnic of Namibia.

For more, visit: https://www.bizcommunity.com