AFDA (The School of the Creative Economy), will host its Application Day on Saturday, 18 August 2018.

AFDA (The School for the Creative Economy) invites all learners, parents and teachers to join us at Application Day on our Johannesburg, Cape Town, Durban and Port Elizabeth campuses from 10am-12pm on Saturday, 18 August. The application day will give prospective students the opportunity to apply directly with assistance from our friendly staff, ask questions, learn more about our 26 majors on offer from our eight courses and finalise any more information needed about studying at AFDA.

AFDA's accredited Degrees and Higher Certificates:

- BA Motion Picture Medium
- BA Live Performance
- BCom Business Innovation & Entrepreneurship
- Higher Certificate in Film, Television & Entertainment Production
- Higher Certificate in Radio & Podcasting
- BA Honours Motion Picture Medium
- BA Honours Live Performance
- MFA (Master of Fine Arts)

AFDA is one of the leading outcomes-based schools in the world. Our students are taught to conceptualise, create and develop indigenous products and commodities for the local and international market. Students are educated not only to forge profitable and sustainable careers in the creative economy, but are encouraged to develop themselves as employment providers - the cultural entrepreneurs of the future. Our alumni have reinvigorated their industries with the quality of their intellectual property, skill and talent.

AFDA films are exhibited at international festivals and have been broadcast worldwide, winning many prestigious awards, including the Student Academy Award for Best Foreign Student Film. In the last three years alone our alumni have won over 60 SAFTA awards. AFDA is a full member of CILECT - an International Association of Film and Television Schools.
