

The annual Advantage Admag Awards

The annual Advantage Admag Awards were held recently at Moyo in Zoolake. The stunning setting did justice to the editors and publishers and other guests who attended this prestigious event.

Chris Moerdyk, the MC entertained with his stories that included a SARIE T-shirt and Playboy magazine. The high quality of the entries again proved that South African magazines are of a world class standard. Congratulations to all the winners and entries and thank you to all the judges for their time as well as the organisers of the event.
