

Nick James joins Groundglass!

Nick James, former public relations officer at Film Event Management, publishers of the Filmmakers Guide to South Africa, has joined Groundglass as the new business development manager.

After spending three months in London and working for one of the largest communication agencies in the United Kingdom, Nick has returned with a wealth of experience, bringing a new and exciting synergy to this 'boutique' production company based in Cape Town.

Co-owners of the company, Janette de Villiers and Terry Vallet, said, "We look forward to working with Nick, he is charismatic, energetic, and positive and brings a visionary perspective which ties in very well with our company philosophy. Welcome to our team."
