

Hayani Support Project receives R16,000 from NAB

To assist the Hayani Support Project, a day-care and residential care service for destitute women, children and orphans, the NAB has donated R16,000, which has enabled it put down a deposit to buy the property it was renting in Orange Grove, Johannesburg. "The NPO has been living in a rented house for years, under threat of eviction. It has wanted to renovate for some time but held back in case the eviction became a reality," says Justine Williams, national sales manager at NAB. "It is able to service the bond repayments through monthly corporate
