East Coast Radio is beaming with pride after bagging three awards at the 10th anniversary of the prestigious Radio Awards ceremony held virtually on Friday, 17 April 2020.

In a first for radio awards, the event was hosted virtually due to the Covid-19 pandemic. That didn't dampen our spirit but instead, we embraced it and watched the entire event together including presenters, producers, management and staff via the online radio awards portal.

Gareth Jenkinson also known as G-Dog walked away with the Best Sports Show Award in the Commercial Category for #GDogInJapan for his remarkable coverage on the Rugby World Cup. G-Dog spent an extensive six weeks in Japan and reported live from each game. He has truly marked his territory in the Sports reporting space and was even interviewed on CNN for his expertise. Catch G-Dog, Weekdays on East Coast Drive.

In a first for commercial radio, East Coast Radio launched East Coast Gold in early November 2019. East Coast Gold is an internet radio station that caters to music lovers who are looking for a music experience that embraces their love of classic hits.
