#Loeries2020 - Day three winners

On the third day of the 2020 awards, the Loeries awarded the Radio Audio, Radio Crafts as well as the student awards in partnership with Facebook. This student award category is for tertiary students across Africa and the Middle East to provide work showcasing electronic and physical media content. Here's a gallery of all the winners from day three.

Radio and Audio - Bronze

Radio and Audio - Bronze

Radio and Audio - Campaign Bronze

Radio and Audio - Campaign Bronze

Radio and Audio - Campaign Bronze

Radio and Audio - Campaign Gold

Pinkie-Pinkie

*is a part-female and part-male, jarring creature with rose-tinted skin, eyes and shocking pink hair.
It attacks and torments pupils in the school toilet cubicles.*

Radio and Audio - Campaign Silver

but the teacher only has 5.11% interest in your child.

Radio and Audio - Campaign Silver

WESGRO
cape town & western cape tourism, trade & investment

Radio and Audio - Silver

Waar Is My Kop

One of township's scariest urban legends is Waar Is My Kop. A headless horse that prances around the streets terrorising people in the night by asking them where his chopped off head is. The sound of its terrifying hooves always sends people running for their lives.
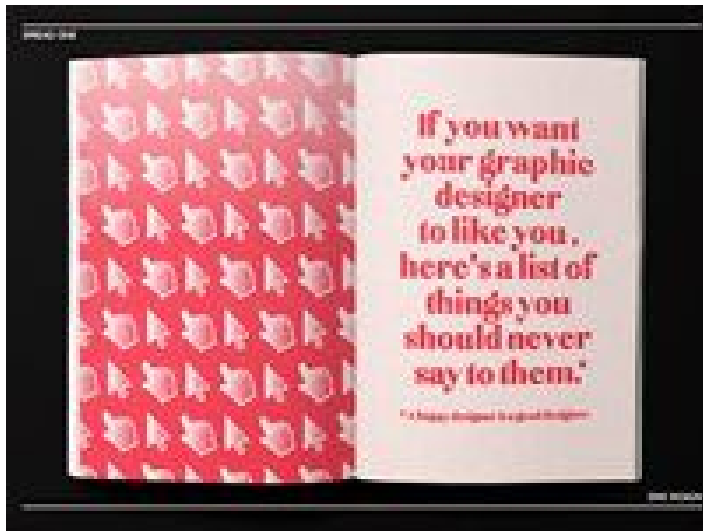

Radio and Audio Crafts - Campaign Craft Certificate

Today the Kasi Sensei is teaching the Dojo The Owl's Hip.

Radio and Audio Crafts - Campaign Craft Certificate

Today the Kasi Sensei is teaching the Dojo The Flying Impala.

Radio and Audio Crafts - Campaign Craft Gold

Student Awards - Bronze

Student Awards - Campaign Bronze

Student Awards - Silver

Student Awards - Gold

For more, visit: https://www.bizcommunity.com