

Telesales a serious pain

African Bank and Russels furniture retailers are the worst offenders.

Had an account with both outlets, paid my account in full respectively two years ago. However each year am called to get myself in more debts again, since am the 'GOOD' customer.

I've settled my accounts and closed them which means I don't have any business with them and am sick and TIRED of the endless calls.

Forum created by Muzi

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>