

New employment gateway for SA graduates

Online recruitment company Distinctive Choice will be launching its online recruitment portal www.d-ccc.com in March 2007, dedicated to reducing unemployment among graduates. The aim is to empower graduates with information on the job market; address economic inequities of the past through stakeholder consultations; encourage entrepreneurship among graduates; and improve job readiness and experience among graduates.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>