

Unique South African coin wins prestigious international award

Cape Town Etc reports that a uniquely created South African R2 coin has come out on top in the Best Contemporary Event category at the 2019 Krause Publications' Coin of the Year (COTY) awards.

The coin was created with a design that represents the first ever successful human-to-human heart transplant that took place in Cape Town.

To view an image of the coin and to read more about this story, click here.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>