

Shobana Maikoo joins TransUnion GCC Africa

TransUnion's Global Capability Centre (GCC) Africa has named Shobana Maikoo as new head of the GCC as it consolidates its astonishing growth since opening its doors for business in March 2021.

Maikoo's appointment means that the GCC's entire executive leadership team is now female, along with more than 70% of its employees.

Maikoo has more than 20 years of experience in operations management across the recruitment and staffing industries, and previously held senior management positions at some of the top BPOs in the country.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>