

US Glamour to cease printing in January 2019

According to Fortune, Condé Nast USA will shut down print operations for its 80-year-old magazine Glamour.

The magazine will print its last issue in January 2019 before shifting to a digital-only operation. This will not affect the SA version.

US Glamour's editor-in-chief Samantha Barry says that the magazine's growth lies in digital.
