

DJ Lora and Princess Scilla DJ at LQP after party

DJ Lora, the UK's queen of dance, and Italy's Princess Scilla DJ have been announced as part of the entertainment line-up for the L'Ormarins Queen's Plate (LQP) 2015 after party.

"DJ Lora and Princess Scilla DJ both epitomise the historic elegance and fresh, next-generation appeal of the L'Ormarins Queen's Plate. We look forward to seeing the equestrian excitement of the day spill over into a memorable evening of festive celebrations," said Katherine Gray, LQP 2015 Coordinator.

DJ Lora

First on stage, and making her LQP debut, will be Princess Scilla DJ, whose noble birth as a scion of the Ruffo di Calabria, one of the noblest families in Italy, makes her the ideal fit for the L'Ormarins Queen's Plate. Part of the current set of European IT girls - embodying charm, style and glamour - she has become a celebrated DJ, performing in the most prominent private and corporate events around the world. She has graced the pages of Italian Vogue, Spanish Vogue, Elle, Marie Claire and many more leading publications

Princess Scilla will kick off the evening's celebrations from 6.30pm to 7.30pm, before the headlining act, popular LQP regular and SA-to-UK export, DJ Lora, takes to the stage until 11pm.

With residencies in London, Dubai and Paris, Lora's captivating fusion of grace and grunge has seen her perform at numerous affluent events - including Simon Le Bon's 50th birthday party, exclusive Formula One parties, and even private gatherings for Princes William and Harry - with Sir Paul McCartney, Pete Tong, Kim Kardashian and Annie Leibovitz amongst her many fans.

Best Dressed and Best Hat

Before the after party, guests will enjoy the event's traditional blue-and-white Best Dressed and Best Hat competitions, L'Ormarins wine and delicious culinary creations, and a display of rare and antique automobiles from the Franschoek Motor Museum, all in the comfort and luxury of the various exclusive LQP hospitality areas.

The main event, the L'Ormarins Queen's Plate 2015's 12-race card, will set the country's finest thoroughbreds thundering down the track in pursuit of the R1 million purse on 10 January, 2015, at Kenilworth Racecourse, Cape Town.

www.itsarush.co.za

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>