

Artists create festive installation from trash

In partnership with Volkswagen, Marine Dynamics, and the Overstrand Municipality, the Dyer Island Conservation Trust commemorated International Coastal Clean-Up Day with a special clean up in the Gansbaai area.

Artists from Junk A New, commissioned by Volkswagen, then utilised the trash and rubbish to create a festive light installation. This installation will go up in Gansbaai - the home of Dyer Island - and Hermanus over the festive season.