

Global Kinetic appoints its 'magnificent seven'

Software engineering company, Global Kinetic recently made seven new appointments.

Its 'magnificent seven' comprises of Niel who takes on the role of senior iOS developer, Jason who will be serving the company as a Scrum master, Unakho will be joining the development department as a junior Java developer, Kyle joins as a production support manager, Juwairiah will don the hat of mid-QA, Christopher will lead from the front as the new senior front-end developer while Fundile will be the company's new junior Android developer.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>