PriceWaterCoopers (PwC) recognises that diversity is not about numbers but about meaningful development and equality of people, with objectives on representation of all demographic groups in the workplace, irrespective of religious beliefs and sexual orientation.

Announced on 6 August 2015 at Emperors Palace at the annual Standard Bank Top Women Awards, some of PWCs' achievements include:

- Candidates' pass rate of 87% compared to the national pass rate of 78% and it is also the highest pass rate of the four large audit firms
- Qualified 1,426 ACI Chartered Accountants over the past 11 years and continue to be the single largest developer of Chartered Accountants in South Africa
- Black partnership growth: 18% in 2008 to 27.5% in 2013
- 75% of our 2013 bursary spend of R15m was allocated to black students
- In 2012 our graduate intake (for both CA and non-CA recruits) was 526, of which 51% was black and 29% was black female

Nana Madikane, PwC Diversity & Inclusion Leader for South Africa says: "We have a strategy around inclusion and diversity, which drives our business as people are important to us. It feels great to win this award as a firm as it means that we are recognised for our efforts."

Hosted by Topco Media, in partnership with Standard Bank, the awards are dedicated to recognising outstanding leadership, inspiration, vision and innovation in organisations that have stepped up and shaped women's roles within the private and public sectors.

"Standard Bank would like to congratulate all the winners of the 12th Annual Standard Bank Top Women Awards and the organisations nominated for the respective awards tonight, which are actively bridging the gender gap in their companies. It is not only good for the cultural progress of companies to be gender diverse but research shows that the more gender diverse companies tend to do better than their counterparts who do not promote gender equality," says Ethel Nyembe, Head of Small Enterprise at Standard Bank.
