

2024 Dakar stage 10 results – A twist in the tail...

2024 Dakar stage 10 was a 317km timed special in a loop around the monumental rock formations of AlUla. The stage was described as a devilish obstacle course will give the savviest competitors plenty of opportunities to capitalise on their rivals' blunders.

Overnight drama

As the race seemed to have settled into a rhythm for many of the front-running teams, there was drama aplenty for the Prodrive outfit. Defending champion Nasser Al-Attiyah made an exit from stage nine. Although he could have started today, he chose not to.
