

Southern Sun Ikoyi Hotel scoops Best Hotel Nigeria again

The Southern Sun Ikoyi Hotel has recently won Best Hotel Nigeria 2013/2014 African Region award, for the second time.

Expressing delight with the hotel's successive win in two years, the hotel's GM, Mark Loxley, attributed the success to "fantastic team effort, ongoing hard work and the dedication of staff and management in providing a consistent high level of good quality guest service, diligence and commitment".

Loxley noted that, the award will "encourage staff and management to continue in their efforts, towards maintaining very high quality of service delivery at all times".

The awards represent the hotel's consistency in maintaining years of international standards which ultimately confirms Southern Sun Ikoyi Hotel as a topmost player in the hospitality industry. Likewise, the awards are in recognition of the hotel's consistent delivery of quality products and customer service over the years.

For more, go to www.tsogosunhotels.com

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>