

Printing companies record business boom in Zim election

Printing companies record business boom in Zim election.

The run-up to the March 29 harmonised elections has seen business booming for local printing companies that have in the past couple of months have been contracted by contesting individuals and political parties to prepare campaign material for them.

Read the full article here

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>