

Panos London bulletin service closes

Panos London has announced that its weekday news bulletin service will close on 19 November 2010. The decision was made due to a shortage of funds to maintain the service. An online survey will be distributed to subscribers to inform efforts to develop and achieve funding for a new service.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>