

New communications manager at AccessKenya

Kevin Keya

AccessKenya Group, a corporate data and infrastructure provider in Kenya, has appointed Kevin Keya as the new group communications manager following the departure of Nancy Imunde a few months ago. Keya who brings over five years experience in media and public relations joined AccessKenya after serving as an account manager at marketing communications firm, Corporate Talk Group. He was also a senior account executive and the head of digital media at Tell-em Public Relations East Africa.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>