

Remedial, special education title to go monthly

RemSpecED magazine, which launched in February 2007 with a print run of 5000 copies, will be published monthly. The full colour title provides information on parenting children with learning and development challenges, localised to South Africa. It is distributed through specialised schools, therapy practices and doctors' waiting rooms.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>