Freshpak Rooibos will be a platinum sponsor for the annual Rainbow Nation Bears Banquet on 29 July 2006, which raises funds for the Red Cross War Memorial Children's Hospital. This year's "Rainbow Nation" theme entails handmade teddy bears from Guernsey, dressed in cultural garb to represent South Africa's 11 official languages, being modelled by South African icons at SA Fashion Week. These bears will then be auctioned off at a gala dinner.
