

More than 500 attendees for FIPP Digital Conference in China

HANGZHOU, CHINA: More than 500 delegates have already registered to attend the 2nd Asia-Pacific Digital Magazine Conference on 14-15 October in Hangzhou, China, and places are still available.

FIPP and the China Periodicals Association will host the two-day conference, which will feature some of the biggest names in Asian digital publishing, including:

- Liu Jiang, president, China Trends Publishing Co, China
- Luo Jia, editor-in-chief, Beijing Rayli Magazine House, China
- Kenichi Endoh, president, NHK Publishing, Japan
- Tarun Rai, CEO, Worldwide Media, India
- Lisa Gokongwei-Cheng, president, Summit Media, Philippines
- Han Ying, founder and CEO, Beijing Wei Wang Ming Information and Technology, China
- Young Chull Kim, chairman and group publisher, Kaya Media Corporation, Korea
- David Liu, CEO, The Knot, USA
- Tenik Hartono, chief editor, Ayahbunda, Femina Group, Indonesia.

To register your attendance go to fippdigitalconferencechina.com or contact FIPP's events manager, Claire Jones.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>