Africa's premier marketing conference is rolling out the red carpet on 29 July and is set to be the marketing blockbuster of the year. Themed "Marketing. The Movie", this content-packed one-day virtual event is bringing together some of the biggest local and international A-list marketing stars, including Marcel Marcondes. His topic is Field of Dreams: Our opportunity to get better, not just get back to normal. This will be followed by a 15-minute Q&A session hosted by Andrea Quaye.

Marcondes believes that when it comes to marketing amid a sea of endless social platforms consumers use every day, if you are not creative, if you do not grab people's attention and if you do not start the conversation, you do not exist. "Creativity is your ticket to play," he says.

And he knows what he is talking about. At Anheuser-Busch US, Marcondes leads the marketing strategy for some of the world's largest beer brands, including Budweiser, Bud Light and Stella Artois. Whether he is delving into insights, innovations or consumer connections, people are at the centre of everything he does at the company. His people-first approach has led him to manage many of the fastest growing brands in the industry. Since 2018, the company has driven more than 50% of all the innovation volume in the beer category.

Marcondes has an impressive list of professional achievements. A Marcel Marcondes
