

Marriott International solidifies its West African portfolio with hotel in Mali

Marriott International, in collaboration with the Koira Holding Group, has opened the Sheraton Bamako Hotel - marking its entry into Mali and solidifying its portfolio across West Africa. "Sheraton Bamako Hotel not only marks our entry into a new country but also serves as a great example of our transformation efforts around the brand," said Alex Kyriakidis, president and managing director, Middle East and Africa, Marriott International.

Images: Marriott International

Strategically located in close proximity to Bamako's Modibo Keita International Airport in one of the city's most sought-after neighbourhoods, ACI 2000, the hotel provides easy access to the city centre, major embassies, corporate offices, government buildings as well as numerous cultural and tourist attractions. With an enviable location affording panoramic views of the Niger river, the hotel blends modern, elegant design, with distinct local touches to create a vibrant aesthetic and a compelling sense of place.

All 200 spacious and well-appointed guestrooms boast panoramic views of the Niger river and the lush green hillside dotted with mango plantations. 27 Sheraton club rooms and 32 suites offer exclusive access to the Sheraton Club Lounge, a private space where guests can enjoy complimentary breakfast, drinks and snacks during the day.

Leisure facilities include a state-of-the-art Sheraton Fitness Centre with cutting-edge equipment available 24 hours a day, a spa and an outdoor pool for guests to relax and recharge for the day.

Four distinctive dining venues offer a wide selection of global cuisine. The all-day dining restaurant, City Grill, blends European and International cuisine with flavours from West Africa while a classic Paris inspired brasserie, the Brasserie Bamaquoise, offers the best of French cuisine. Guests can also enjoy fresh juices, a drink or light bites at Légendes Du Sports Bar or while relaxing at the Oasis Pool Bar.

With more than 820 square meters of dedicated meeting space, the hotel features 11 meeting rooms including a 478m<sup>2</sup> Grand Ballroom as well as a fully equipped business centre, with state-of-the-art facilities and connectivity through high-speed Wi-Fi.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>