

Volcano Group cracks the code

On Monday evening, 22 May 2006, The Volcano Group cracked the code in style and impressed clients with a private showing of the most keenly-awaited movie event of the year, The Da Vinci Code.

Approximately 500 Volcano clients and staff were treated to drinks and snacks at Monte Casino's IL Grande Theatre, prior to decoding the deception and deciphering the clues of the gripping thriller.

The entertaining evening and private showing was Volcano's way of thanking clients for their ongoing support and adding a social element to the working dynamic.
