5 May 2021

South African full service advertising agency Clockwork is proud to announce six take-homes from the globally-revered African SABRE Awards, with two Winner trophies and four Certificate Of Excellence Awards. Clockwork's clients Netflix, Xbox, Standard Bank and Acer were among the campaigns that picked up accolades. Clockwork has recently opened a brand new branch in the UK.

The award event will be held virtually on the 27th May from Dar es Salaam in Tanzania and Clockwork will join other South African communications and advertising agencies in this event, including collaborative partners Eclipse Communications.

The SABRE Awards have been on the forefront of celebrating PR excellence for over 25 years as the world's biggest PR awards programme, dedicated to benchmarking the best PR work from across the globe, both traditionally and digitally. The Awards recognise campaigns that demonstrate the highest levels of strategic planning, creativity and business results, something we at Clockwork pride ourselves on.
