

Cast of Adventures in Pantoland announced

Adventures in Pantoland, opening 6 November 2022 on the Nelson Mandela Theatre stage at Joburg Theatre, is five pantomimes in one: Sleeping Beauty, Aladdin, Snow White, Jack and The Beanstalk and Peter Pan.

Image supplied: The full cast of Cinderella from 2021

“Our annual festive season pantomime production is a major staple of Joburg City Theatres’ programming,” said the theatres’ CEO, Xoliswa Nduneni-Ngema. “Whilst planning Joburg Theatre’s 60th Anniversary celebrations for 2022, it was, therefore, the perfect time for us to produce a ‘Panto of All Pantos’, constituting the finale of our anniversary season”.

Writer and director Janice Honeyman explained, “We’ll take you on a daring and dangerous quest to retrieve the long-lost, sneakily-stolen Golden Goblet of Goodness. It’s goodies versus baddies, heroes versus villains, the happies versus the horrids - and you’ll be there with us to conquer greed and recapture the glow of goodness in Pantoland”.

Image supplied: Pinocchio production from 2017

The cast this year will feature Dylan Du Plessis, David Arnold Johnson, Didintle Khunou, Ilse Klink, Hlengiwe Lushaba Madlala, Carmen Pretorius, Brenda Sakellarides, Justin Swartz, Grant Towers and Ben Voss.

Dancing, singing and playing every other role in the panto ensemble will be triple-threat performers Louise Duhain, Tarryn Heard, Elsje Lourens, Gareth Meijssen, Katlego Nche, René Setlhako, Thandaza Silwane, Jordan Soares, Logan Timbre, Kensiwe Tshabalala, Stephan Van Der Walt and Donovan Yaards.

Image supplied: Production of Pinocchio from 2017

Coming together again from Joburg Theatre's hugely successful 2021 pantomime Cinderella, the creative team for Adventures in Pantoland includes production designer Andrew Timm, choreographer Nicol Sheraton, musical director Dale-Ray Scheepers, costume co-ordinator Bronwen Lovegrove and lighting designer Johan Ferreira.

Tickets from R260 are available here or by calling 0861 670 670. The pantomime season will run until 24 December 2022.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>