

Hendrik Strauss becomes Sun International's group security and surveillance manager

Hendrik Strauss has been named group security and surveillance manager for Sun International while retaining security and surveillance responsibilities for Sun City Resort.

Strauss is responsible for the strategic leadership and responsibility of Sun International's security and surveillance activities, with a focus on driving process and technological innovation to optimise functionalities and synergies throughout the group.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>