

2020 Cannabis Expo goes virtual

The 2020 Cannabis Expo will be held virtually as the Cannabis Vexpo (virtual expo) from 26 to 28 November 2020.

The canna revolution - Q&A with Cannabis Expo director Silas Howarth

Ruth Cooper 12 Mar 2020

“The cannabis industry has been growing rapidly, even during these unprecedented times. With large public events postponed worldwide due to the Covid-19 pandemic, the Cannabis Vexpo is the ideal platform for global cannabis business leaders, entrepreneurs and people interested in cannabis products and opportunities to network, participate in panels and discussions and to discover and interact with a diverse range of exhibitors representing cannabis business in Africa,” says expo director Silas Howarth.

THE CANNABIS
VIRTUAL
VEXPO
INDUSTRY | HEALTH | AGRICULTURE

18

AFRICA

REGISTER NOW

VISITOR ACCESS | FREE
(ATTENDANCE LIMITED)

DELEGATE ACCESS | R1 000
(EARLY BIRD DISCOUNT)

26 - 28 NOVEMBER 2020
10H00 - 18H00 CAT | 08H00 - 16H00 UTC

THE CANNABIS VEXPO.COM

With over 50 exhibitors represented, live panel discussions and presentations from cannabis experts, leaders and change-makers from around the world, as well as innovative virtual networking opportunities, the Cannabis Vexpo is a first of its kind for the African continent. Unique to this virtual event, visitors from anywhere in the world will be able to register and attend for free, and with 10s of thousands of past visitors and delegates already on the organiser's database, the Cannabis Vexpo

Africa is set to be the largest virtual cannabis event to take place this year.

A limited amount of free passes are available for registration. Early-bird delegate passes are available for purchase. Registration, tickets and information at TheCannabisVexpo.com

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>